A Faith-filled Family

"Do you really have all five children in Catholic school?" If we had a quarter for every time we heard that, my husband and I would already have a college fund for them! When it came to our children, we always knew that we would prioritize a Catholic education, "as long as God allows us to have our children there, they will be in Catholic school." For the past eight years, God has provided a way for all of them to remain at Holy Innocents and we cannot think of a better place for them to receive a quality education.

Some people choose to invest their money in things such as the stock market, real estate, or cars, but within our family, our choice of investment is, and will continue to be, a Catholic education. As someone who attended Catholic school from kindergarten through college, I have had firsthand experience of the many benefits that our children would receive by being part of this community of learners. My husband, who was not able to obtain the same education, greatly values the opportunities that his children have in Catholic school.

We are the first teachers of faith for our children, and at Holy Innocents they are allowed to pray and practice Catholic values in their day to day activities, and learn to carry God in their hearts every day. The educators in Catholic schools are chosen carefully for their passion and ability to go above and beyond the call and the positive and life-long impact they have on our children's lives.

Adrian (gr. 2), Andrew (K), and Ethan (Pre-K)*

"I graduated from Holy Innocents in 1999. Twenty years later, I am grateful and blessed to be able to send my son, Andrew, to my alma mater to receive a quality education that is deeply rooted in values and learning from teachers and staff who are dedicated to preparing him for the future. Since being at Holy Innocents, I have witnessed an immense growth in my son."

Mother of Andrew Dang (grade 1)

Do You Pay PA State Income Tax?

Consider giving through the EITC Tax Credit Program where you can direct your PA taxes to benefit Holy Innocents School.

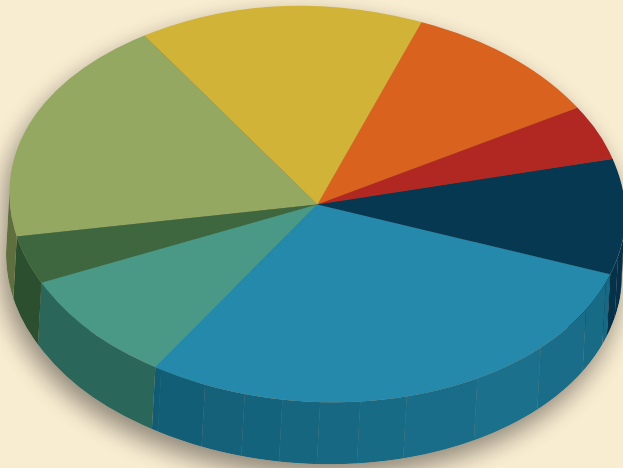

The Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) is a tax credit of up to 90% that many PA businesses and residents are eligible to receive. This amount can then be donated directly to Holy Innocents School to help offset tuition for students who, otherwise, could not attend our school.

Individuals with a PA tax liability can participate, as can C-Corps, S-Corps, LLCs, and Limited Partnerships.

Have the say in how your tax dollars are spent. For more information contact Linda Marchese, Director of Advancement at Holy Innocents, at 215-743-2600 or lmarchese@holyinnocentsrc.org.
